DAVIS THEATRE

New Show Today-The Girl in The Gown Shop Feature Attraction, Ten People; Also Two Other Acts and Triangle Photoplays.

There will be an entire new show There will be an entire new show at this theatire today and the feature attraction on this bill is "The Girl in the Gown Shop," a miniature musical comedy with ten people, eight of them pretty girls and two funny comedians, this is the most expensive and elab-orate attraction that has ever appeared in this city, and it is sure to be a big hit with the Davis patrons. Laughter, song, dance and beautiful costumes make this act something that everyone will enjoy, all the intest creations of dame fashion will be worn by the girls and the ladies will have a chance to see the latest fall styles displayed by living models. Another fine act is presented by Fred Weber & Co., call-ed "At the Stage Door." This is a unique ventriloquial offering and one that will please both young and old. The third act is Dora Hilton, a pretty girl with a sweet singing voice who comes here direct from Keith's The-atre, Boston, where she was one of the hits of the show. The Triangle feat-ure photoplay is Dorothy Gish in Gretchen, the Green Horn, a five part Griffith production. This story con-cern the trials and tribulations of a Dutch engraver and his cnarming little daughter. They come to America to seek their fortune and they en-counter a good many vicissitudes. Through sheer necessity he undertakes to do a job, the legitimacy of which he questions. This work gets him in-to extreme difficulties from which he is rescued only by the good sense and cunning of his daughter Gretchen. To complete the show there is a fun ny two-reel Keystone comedy called A Lover's Might, featuring Fred Mace, Matinee at 2:15. All sents 10 cents.

BREED THEATRE

Alexander Gaden and Gertrude Robinson in The Quality of Faith Feature for Today.

The Quality of Faith, the Mutual Masterpicture, which is the feature at the Breed theatre for today, is a powerful picturization of factory evils as they exist today in various parts of the country. Gertrude Robinson and Alexander Gaden, prominent Gaumont stars, play the leading roles in a convincing, and sympathetic manner. The story is an intensely interesting one. story is an intensely interesting one design with the fall and regeneration of a minister. The Mutual Weekly, showing events from Somewhere in ance and a screamingly funny ogus comedy completes the bill for

On Friday and Saturday Irene Fenwick, the gifted and charming star who has the distinction of appearing in the stellar roles in three big condway stage successes in success broadway stage successes in succes-sion, will be seen on the screen at the breed, in The Child of Destiny, a five part Metro wonderplay. This will mark Miss Fenwick's debut on the Metro program, and the vehicle pro-vided for her is an exceptionally strong one. There are many striking portrasts, and Miss Fenwick is sup-ported by an unusually strong cast, which includes such well known stage and screen stars as Robert Elliot Mme. Ganna Walska, Roy Applegat Roy Clair, Martin Faust and William

The Breed will also present the fa-mous Metro Travel Series and a funny Figure comedy completes the bill for

AT THE AUDITORIUM

Three New Acts and Virginia Pearson in The Tortured Heart, Fox Feature Today.

An entire change of vaudeville will take place today at the Auditorium when Lorette and Morton, the dancing jugglers, will head the bill. Lorette and Taylor are a couple of very versatile entertainers who are expert dancers, skillful jugglers, and who also do masic and contortion work intermingled with pantomime humor. The second act will be Gene and Hayes, a man and woman, who present a nifty singing and dancing specialty and third will come Mildred Efford, a pretty girl with a pleasing personality and an act which is always a winner. On the picture program Virginia Pearson will be seen in the big William Fox five-reel feature, The Tortured Heart, a dramatic story of a woman's search for happiness and a wonderfully interesting photoplay. wonderfully interesting photoplay. A George Ade comedy will also be seen on today's bill.

For Friday and Saturday the Paramount feature will be Fannie Ward in A Gutter Magdeline. The third ep-isode of the Beatrice Fairfax series will also be shown.

POETRY

A DREAM OF WINTER.

Don't old winter keep you hoppin't
Poles so tough it seems to me
I'm condemned to go on choppin'
Stove wood through eternity!
Ever since I shucked my teeny
Little baby bibs and sacks,
Seems to me I've had the sweeny
Just from swingin' that durned ax.

Just from swingin' it, or haulin'
Some old cross-out through a log;
Have it hang and stand there maulin'
Iron wedges like a dog.
Still at that some fool'll trill of
Rural joys and sweet content.
Tell you what, I've had my fill of
All sech idle merriment.

Old cold days of winter comin'
On you sure as age and death.
Naked cottonwoods a hummin'
Till they purt nigh take your breath.
Autumn, while it's sorta cheerin'.
And a mighty pretty sight.
Still it hints of winter nearin'
With that choppin' ax in sight!

I HEARD A CAMPAIGN SPEECH I'm mighty sorry for this land—
Hain't nothin' been done right;
Things has gone wrong on ev
hand—
We've sot too mighty tight
When we had orter butted in
And made the eagle screech—
Not sot around to count our tin—
I heard a campaign speech

Our country is serene and calm,
With all the world at peace,
Enjoyin' life—haln't come to harm,
Our trade—what an increase!
"He kept us out of war," they say—
"Can rule as well as teach!"
Why make a change? It wouldn't

I heard a campaign speech! Some stuff they talk is purty punk—
It don't go down right well:
What part of it is true or bunk.
How be I goin' to tell?
I've read 'bout all that there is wrote—
Got every pi'nt of visw;
Waal, waal, how be I goin' tew vote?—
Same as I allus do.——H. E. F.
